ANOTHER EFFORT FOR DEEP WATER

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING OF CITIZENS STARTS THE CAMPAIGN FOR PROGRESS.

Hon. Jas. D. Phelan and Congressmen Hayes, Kahn and Nolan are Invited to Visit This City.

If Redwood City falls in its efforts to have its waterways permanently improved it will not be on account of lack of enthusiasm among the people. Friday night a meeting was held by the Board of Trade at which there was a good attendance and the movement was started on its way with a zest that cannot result in failure.

Senator-elect James D. Phelan, and Representatives Hayes, Kahn and Nolan have been invited to come to Redwood City and be the guests of the city for a day and inspect the creek and have made known to them the needs of the city. After their inspection it is planned to give a dinner in their honor and make their visit a pleasant one.

President R. F. Chilcott of the Board of Trade called the meeting to order and tersely placed before the assemblage the waterway plan.

"The endeavor to bring permanent improvement to Redwood City's waterway is the greatest plan ever brought before the Board of Trade or the people of Redwood City, and should meet with hearty indorsement. For years we have dreamed of ending our everlasting creek troubles and of bringing to Redwood City her share of industrial success. It seems as though the opportune moment has arrived. If we can interest Senator James D. Phelan in our sause—and I can assure you of the support of Congressman Hayes—the project seems impossible of failure. It is my belief that we should write Senator Phelan and Congressman Hayes to become our guests and show them what we have to offer and what we want. I do not fear the result of such a step."

Stuart Frank advised that Representatives Kahn and Nolan of San Francisco be also invited to come to Redwood City and himself volunteered to interest Mr. Kahn.

Chase Littlejohn, who as boy and man has known Redwood City and has studied its needs and its opportunities, declared:

"Unless something be done quickly the Redwood creek will cease to be a navigable stream within a very few years. A straight channel is the only salvation."

Walker C. Graves Senior, who as a member of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, is interested in developing the bay shore of the Peninsula, told of the work that is being done in that line and volunteered his aid in the great waterway project.

Dan Stafford, A. D. Walsh, Henry Steinberger, Frank Marcus, J. V. Swift and W. C. Graves Jr. and others addressed the meeting and also pledged their emphatic indorsement to the project.

George H. Buck, L. P. Behrens, J. V. Swift and W. C. Graves Jr, were appointed a committee to secure the presence of Senator Jas. D. Phelan. R. F. Chilcott and W. A. Price are to extend an invitation to Congressman E. A. Hayes. Stuart Frank is to extend the invitation to Congressman Julius Kahn and J. J. Harrigan will enlist the services of Congressman John Nolan.

The date of the reception and the completion of the arrangements are to be determined to suit the convenience of the invited guests.

The Senator and Congressmen have been communicated with. Mr. Hayes will be able to spare a few hours next Saturday afternoon. Mr. Phelan, although busy, will try to come, as will also Mr. Nolan. Mr. Kahn cannot be present as he has already started to Washington. All have given their promise of a strong effort in behalf of the movement.

Will Entertain Grand Officers

Morvin Grove No. 52, United Ancient Order of Druids, is making preparations to entertain the grand officers of the State Tuesday evening. A banquet will be served in the banquet room of Foresters hall. In addition to the reception, a class initiation will be held and the degree team will put on the second and third degrees of the Druids' ritual. The proficience of the degree team has created a demand for its services where installation work is necessary. The team expects in the near future to assist in the formation of Druid groves in San Mateo and Burlingame.

SAD MESSENGER OF DEATH BLIGHTS A HAPPY HOME

The hand of Death's angel fell heavily in this city Saturday when Harry, the 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Osborne, was called home. The boy had been ill for two weeks, an attack of measles being followed by membranous croup. Every possible attention had been given him and he was believed to be getting better when the end cam suddenly. Harry was a child beloved by all who knew him. He had a mind of unusual keenness, which made him a leader in his class at school and nature had giv n him also a sunny, happy disposition that endeared him to playmates and teachers. His parents have deep sympathy in their great sorrow. The burial took place at Cypress Lawn Monday.

A second son of Mr. and Mrs. Osborne is also desperately ill with pneumonia and is making a hard battle for life. He was somewhat improved last night.

Civic League Meeting Tuesday.

The San Mateo County Center of the California Civic League will hold its next meeting at the Redwood City Woman's club house Tuesday, December 1st, at 2:30 p. m., when Superintendent Calvin Derrick of the Preston School of Industry at Ione will give an address. The meeting of the Civic League are open to the public and all are invited.

Mrs. Claude Fox is passing a fortnight in San Francisco, where she is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Sahlberg.

REDWOOD CITY IS ASKED TO FORM MILITARY CO.

First Lieutenant C. L. Mitchell of San Jose was here yesterday and made a partial canvass of the city with a view to organizing a local company of the National Guard. He states that a company within the jurisdiction of the Fifth regiment will shortly be mustered out and it is the hope of Major Farrell of San Jose that the opening will be filled by Redwood City.

The full quota of a company is sixty-two men and three officers, whose age shall be from 21 to 4: years. Applicants for enlistment under 21 must have the consent of parents or guardians. The term of service is three years and during that period the guardsmen are exempt from jury service. After seven years service the men are exempt for life.

The state supplies each man with four complete uniform suits, and a full equipment and besides pays each company $1450 annually for hall rent and other expenses. Each year the men are sent off on camping trips where they are instructed in drilling and target practice, being paid $1 per day in addition to the regular soldier's pay.

The young soldiers must be of good character, willing to obey orders and at all times to do their part as defenders of their state, and nation. If necessary, Lieutenant Mitchell will keep in touch with local residents and give the movement his assistance.

It is fifty years since Redwood City has had a military company. During the Civil War, the Jefferson Cavalry, a home guard, was organized here and remained in service until the close of the war. No member of that organization is now living, but its history is partially given in the framed resolutions and official communications that are hanging in the old city hall on Main street.

FRANK TANNERY SETTING FOR EXCITING FOTO-PLAY

The Liberty Film Company of San Mateo found a setting for one of its photo comedies at the Frank tannery yesterday. The company's actresses and actors came to town in a number of automobiles. There were soldiers with fierce mustaches and whiskers, and sailors and villains and most interesting of all the pretty heroine and a bevy of other maids. The play was enacted on the water front where the large derrick stands. It was intensely exciting. The heroine escaped from the villain and rather than submit to recapture, threw herself into the questionable tide water which ebbs and flows in that locality. It was at this juncture that the excitement became contageous. Henry Steinberger, overcome with gallantry and forgetting for the moment that the whole thing was only "acting," had to be forcibly restrained from pitching the villain into a vat. A number of soldiers and sailors also sprang into the creek and with the aid of the derrick the heroine and her rescuers were lifted up on the wharf and the lady was restored to her lover, while Frank Marcus offered a paternal blessing. Then the members of the party changed their clothing and whirled away to San Mateo, after which business was resumed at the tannery.

Miss Annie Sears of La Honda was a visitor to the Misses Kelting this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mourot of San Francisco were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Lovie over the week-end.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

SEASONABLE REFLECTIONS.

In obedience to the proclamation of the President, last Thursday was generally observed as the official day of National Thanksgiving. This annual custom of setting apart one day in the year when the people shall refrain from the ordinary engrossments of life and return thanks for the manifold blessings with which they have been endowed by the Creator is a good one. In this manner man is brought closser to his Maker and made more fully to realize his dependence upon the Infinite director of the universe.

To the people of the United States this day, however, should not be the only one upon which we should return thanks to that munificent power which controls our destinies. To us every day should be one of thanksgiving, of praise to God for his manifold blessings.

Especially should the hearts of our people be grateful for the material blessings which have been theirs during the year now nearing its close. While the scanty harvests of Europe are being ground under the hoof-beats and wheels of the machines of death, while men by innumerable thousands are dying daily upon the battle fields and hospitals across the seas and a pall of inexpressible horror hangs over the broken hearts of whole empires, our people sing the anthems of peace as they gather their harvests as unconcernedly as though there were no signs of war or pestilence in the air.

Surely, ours should be a grateful people. But the blessings which we have enjoyed bring with them responsibilities and duties which we cannot escape. Out of our abundance we must provide for those less fortunate. In this land of plenty, no worty one should be allowed to suffer for the ordinary comforts of life, much less for the necessities of a bare existence.

To a large extent we are rising to this duty. Our people have contributed nobly to the relief of the innocent ones who are suffering the horrors of a war in the making of which they had neither hand nor voice. But in our own fair land, abundantly blessed as it has been, there are many poor—many worthy people who seek in vain for the means of securing an honest livelihood. At this season of Thanksgiving, there are many in our midst who must suffer because of their inability to find that employment which would provide them with the means of securing the nourishment necessary to sustain life, and for which they have been earnestly seeking.

It should be our duty to search out those people and out of our abundance to provide for them. The relief of the suffering in foreign lands is a splendid charity; the care of the unfortunate at home is a bounden duty.

Were the Infinite to speak, He would ask for no lip service at such a season as this, but the command would be repeated: "Feed my lambs! Feed my sheep!"

RATHER HARD ON SAN FRANCISCO.

Now comes Eugene E. Schmitz, he of decidedly malodorous fame, and announces that he will seek reelection as mayor of San Francisco, an office he disgraced a few years ago. In view of Schmitz' black record as a public official, and his narrow escape from the penalty of his evil deeds, it would seem the part of wisdom for him to remain in the political scrap pile to which he was relegated.

In the light of generally conceeded fact, his announced reason for making the campaign again is a peculiar one. He insists that he is an innocent man suffering under a great burden of wrong and that his purpose in again becoming a candidate is to seek vindication.

Schmitz should be thankful that the numerous indictments returned against him at the time he was driven from office were dismissed and that he is not now wearing convict's stripes. As for San Francisco, she has suffered enough for her political sins and certainly should be spared the burden of another Schmitz administration.

There will be work for Japanese and Chinese in this state just as long as white men and boys look upon menial labor as a disgrace.

An anxious enquirer from Maine is assured that with a few brief intermissions summer in California lasts twelve months in the year.

A colored philosopher says there is less luck in a rabbit's foot than there is in a chicken's foot—providing the rest of the fowl is attached.

Abuse of men in public life has impelled many a good man to hold aloof from public office. Men should be treated fairly and justly in public life, as well as in private life.

"Business is business" is never an excuse for dishonesty or shady dealing. Business may be not only business, but it may be and should be honest and high-toned. And it is only fair to say that most business is conducted honorably.

Preparing for County Beatiful.

Within the next seventy-five days the Peninsula Rapid Transit Company will be operating its motor cars between San Francisco and points in San Mateo county, according to C. O. Ellingwood, who is promoting the enterprise with the plan of having it come into direct competition with the electric and steam lines.

Articles of incorporation have been filed with the county clerk in Redwood City by J. E. McCurdy, attorney for the company. The capital stock consists of 100,000 shares at the par value of $1each. The directors, who are well known business men of the county, consist of the following: August Berg, Burlingame; Eric Wold, Burlname; F. A. Cunningham, South San Francisco; D. G. Doubleday, Millbrae; F. J. Smith, San Mateo; W. M. Roberts, San Mateo; and J. E. McCurdy.

At the regular meeting of the San Mateo County Development Association last Tuesday night, the following letter written by Geo. W. Gerhard, secretary of the Civic League of Improvement Clubs and Associations of San Francisco, was read:

"San Mateo County Development Ass'n., Mr. F. L. Eksward, Secy,, San Matgo, Cal., Gentlemen—The Civic League of Improvement Clubs and Associations at its last regular monthly meeting, held November 12, 1914, unanimously accepted the preliminary invitation of your delegates to attend the celebration next spring, to be held upon the completion of the highways built by San Mateo county under the bond issue.

"The Civic League feels highly gratified in receiving this, the first invitation extended in connection with this affair, and congratulates your organization on the successful conclusion of its long fight to secure proper roadways in your county, and can now assure you that San Francisco will do its share and have a well-paved road connecting your Bay Shore Boulevard with the downtown section of the city over Market street, and the Exposition grounds over Van Ness avenue, all of which will be built by the time you will hold your celebration."

The Beautification Committee now working in co-operation with the leading civic bodies in the county, is making great headway. The plan of cleaning up and beautifying by means of planting flowers is meeting everywhere with great enthusiasm. A meeting was recently held in the Burlingame City Hall, at which Secretary F. L. Ekswand of the Developmnet Association presidd.

Every resident in the county is invited to attend the next meeting of the Beautification Committee at the Burlingame City Hall on the afternoon of December 2d.

New Recitation Methods.

A recent issue of the Aberdeen (Washington) News contained an article of over a column in length regarding the new plan of recitation inaugurated by the principal, Hjalmar E. Holmquist. Mr. Holmquist's plan is to have double periods for all recitations. Half of the time is spent in study under the direction and supervision of the teacher of the subject. Under this plan much of the home study is eliminated, the student is enabled to get a better understanding of the lesson and the teacher has the satisfaction of knowing that the lesson has been studied. Mr. Holmquist lectured upon the plan before the teachers of the State Educational Association and his plan will be followed in several other Washington high schools. The school over which Mr. Holmquist presides has 250 pupils enrolled and employs fourten teachers.

Local Family Bereaved.

Among the nineteen passengers whose lives were lost in the wreck of the steamer Hanalei which went ashore in the fog on the Marin coast Monday afternoon and broke up Tuesday morning was Dewitt H. Cole, the brother of Mrs. M. B. Young of this city. He was coming down from Humboldt county to spend Thanksgiving with his sister and to be one of a family gathering of father and mother and other relatives who looked forward with happy anticipations to the reunion. Mrs. Young was prostrated on hearing of her brother's death.

Mr. Cole was unmarried, a native of New York, and 36 years of age. He was a graduate of the University of California and had recently moved to Humboldt, where he was about to engage in farming and dairying on an extensive

Parents and friends of all the boys belonging to the gymnasium classes are invited to see the game and the work the class does, at their weekly meetings.

HAPPY LA HONDA

LA HONDA, Nov. 25—Edward Fauger, proprietor of the Stingle ranch, met with a painful accident early in the week. In a runaway accident he sustained a compound fracture of his right arm. He is now under the care of Dr. Ross at Redwood.

Gunner Jensen, a resident of the Kkondyke for over three years, after a few days here as the guest of Charles Cavalli, has returned to the city, where he is making preparations to spend the winter at this place.

Lahondacitis is the new disease. Translated it means "La Honda lures 'em back." Andy Buerk of San Bruno has this complaint and was with us a few days ago. He left here with his face badly scratched—and he is not a marri d man. Fact is he got the limit of fat quail and scrambling in the brush for the slaughtered birds, he received the cruel abrasions.

Al. Brackman and Chas. Wagner have located here and are running the blacksmith shop. They are living at the Sears' old ranch house. It seems like old times to see the the warm fire in the forge and to hear the music of the hammers on the anvil.

The two concrete bridges between Cavalli's and Kieffer's, are now completed.

A bevy of beautiful Stanford girls, on horseback, came up Sunday. Looking for a news item, we politely asked them their names. "Maggie, doncher tell him," cried a fair lady, "he's a poll tax guy."

Injury May Prove Serious.

Boyd Gilcrest of Palo Alto, the 12-year old nephew of Mrs. Jas. T. O'Keefe is being treated by an oculist and is seriously threatened with the loss of his left eye, the result of a recent accident He was playing in the dry creek-bed, near the bridge, when a boy friend hurled down a stone just as he looked up. The missile struck him in the eye. For days and nights he was confined to his bed, and latterly intense pain developed. Now it is feared that a hardening of the eyeball is developing.

Death of Former Resident.

The sad news comes from Ripon, San Joaquin county, of the death of Mrs. Edward L. Fisher who passed away on the 14th instant. Mrs. Fisher was well known in this city where she resided several years ago. She was beloved by a large circle of friends who will hear of her death with the deepest sorrow. The sympathy of this community is extended to the bereaved husband and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Harland Mansfield have returned from their wedding trip and will pass the winter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mansfield.

WATERWAY MEETING FOR TODAY

Improvements to be Discussed at Reception to Senator Phelan and Congressmen Hayes and Nolan

The businessmen of Redwood City are leaving no stone unturned to have the waterway improved. The movement launched at a recent meeting of the Board of Trade is still the topic of discussion and interest in the subject is daily growing. Yesterday the committee having the matter in charge met in the office of Archer Kincaid and outlined plans for receiving Senator-elect Phelan and Congressmen Hayes and Nolan who are to visit Redwood City today. The discussion of the propcsed improvement was quite spirited.

W. H. Hanson of the Tacoma Mill Company, which has valuable interests on the stream, waspresent and offered some valuable suggestions as to the way of proceeding, based on past efforts to interest the government in the water way. Stuart Frank, representing the Frank tanneny, spoke on the same subject, imparting to the committee advice as to procedure that had been given him by Congressman Kahn, who was familiar with the subject. He expressed the regret of Mr. Kahn that his early departure for Washington made it impossible to come to this city. His hearty co-operation was assured, however.

It was decided to hold a mass meeting in the Supervisors' room in the courthouse today at 10 o'clock, every citizen being invited to be present. Congressman Hayes will be here and possibly Congresman Nolan, and Senator-elect Phelan has promised to make every effort to attend. Maps of the proposed improvement will be ready for inspection and the matter will be presented as forcibly as possible to the visiting representatives, by two or more speakers who are familiar with the subject.

It is hoped that every citizen who can possibly attend will be present. The meeting will be a short one and full of snap from start to finish.

The central committee on homeless children of California expended over $12,000 in the maintenance and placing of children in the past year, doing more than the combined efforts of the other charitable institutions in the children line. Several children have been placed in this neighborhood and five adopted. The local committee of the N. D. G. W. would like to hear from any family who would like the company and care of a loveable child. The best of Union music has been provided. In fact, this will be a musical entertainment as well as a dance which shall run until the small hours of the morning—in other words, an all-night dance. Reserve December 12th as the date you will assist the poor homeless children of California.

PARK COMMISSION WILL ORNAMENT CAMINO REAL.

The Redwood City Park Commission to which much credit is due for the beautification of the streets by the planting of shade trees, will undertake to further ornament the city by planting red geraniums along the Camino Real. At a meeting of the commission Thursday night the work was planned and it is requested that local residents when renovating their gardens, save and temporarily plant their red geraniums so that they may be available next spring for repainting on the highway.

The work of ornamenting El Camino Real has also been taken up by a committee of ladies at Burlingame which plans to ornament the road in a like way from one end of the county to the other, using exclusively the same character and color of flowers. The effect will be a great attraction to the thousands who motor through the county.

The local commission is composed of the following: Mrs. A. S. Kalenborn, president; G. H. Elliot, secretary; Mrs. Albert Mansfield, Chase Littlejohn, Charles G. Landscheit, J. C. Dickey.

RELIEF FOR THE BELGIANS MUST NOT CEASE NOW.

Although the American response to the relief of the Belgians has been most generous, it must not cease. The food that has been sent will tide over the present distress of those unfortunate people but it cannot prevent actual starvation in the near future. Knowing the conditions and the needs of Belgium, a strong organization has been formed by graduates of Stanford University, to be known as the Stanford University Committee, whose object will be to keep up the collection of funds and their forwarding to Belgium for the relief of the people. Mrs. Kalenborn of this city, who has been appointed the local chairman of the committee, is actively at work in the interest of the movement. Cards are being distributed by which monthly donations are promised, the money to be left at the First National Bank, where the smallest amount will be accounted for. Contributors may make their donation in a lump sum, to be paid before January 1st. The sending of money must be continue for at least six months to afford a measure of relief. The funds will be distributed by the American minister. It is hoped that Redwood City will respond generously.

"Good roads, in connection with the wonderful development of the automobile, will make San Mateo county," is the declaration made in the current number of "Pacific Motor," a magazine of wide circulation among the autoists of the Pacific Coast. The declaration is made in a three-page, handsomely illustrated story, written by E. T. McGettigan, general manager of the Peninsula Industrial Commission and a resident of Redwood City. The story is the third of a series of magazine articles prepared by Mr. McGettigan for publication in well-known and popular publications following the commission's plan to exploit the peninsula country.
